FORECAST

ENDORSED BY SAOGA, SAE, SESSA, SAPVIA & SAWEA

Published by Cape Media Corporation,
South Africa's leading niche market publisher.

Securing a brighter future

Energy Forecast is the premier Business to Business power publication in Sub-Saharan Africa, covering a variety of critical energy related topics, from renewable energy, nuclear prospects, oil and gas, to energy efficiency within the work place to mention a few.

With Africa's energy needs coming under close scrutiny in recent times, Energy Forecast serves as a platform to explore new alternatives in electricity generation and more efficient supply chains, to keep in step with the massive economic development that Africa is enjoying.

Credibility

A proud history of objective reporting has seen Energy Forecast gaining some noteworthy endorsements over the years from The South African Association of Energy Efficiency (SAEE), The Sustainable Energy Society of South Africa (SESSA), The South African Photovoltaic Industry Association (SAPVIA), The South African Wind Energy Association (SAWEA) and The South African Oil and Gas Alliance (SAOGA).

Edited by multi-award winning editor, Gregory Simpson, who has excelled as an editor of some of Cape Media's premier industrial magazines, is never afraid to look outside the box for innovative answers.

Frequency

10 000 copies of Energy Forecast are published and distributed every quarter (February, May, August and November). Our customised distribution channels include top decision makers and members of Government Energy Departments, Mining Companies, Municipalities, Trade Departments, Energy Companies, Independent Power Producers, Petrochemical Industries, Education Departments, Nuclear Companies, Steel Manufacturers, Logistics and Communication including the databases of our abovementioned endorsers.

So don't be left out in the dark, Energy Forecast is at hand to get your message directly to the people who matter at the core of your target market.
